N. C. STATE CONVENTION.

FIFTEENTH DAY—CONTINUED.

NIGHT SESSION.

October 18th, 7 o'clock, P. M.

Mr. Lyon, of Granville, introduced a resolution that hereafter, speeches should be limited to thirty minutes.

Mr. Phillips, of Orange—

An ordinance providing compensation to the sheriffs for holding elections for delegates to this Convention.

Under a suspension of the rules the ordinance was passed.

The resolution of Mr. Lyon was taken up and amended by Mr. Logan, of Rutherford, so that no delegate could speak but once on each question, and only fifteen minutes, was adopted.

Mr. Buxton, of Cumberland, from the Committee on "Lost Records," reported that the Provisional Governor would do all that was in his power to have them found and restored to the Capitol. The letter book of the Governor had been carried off by the military authority.

Mr. Wright, of New Hanover, from the Committee to whom was referred the petition of Mr. T. J. Hughes, reported as follows:

The Committee to which was referred the petition of Theodore J. Hughes, and the matters therein embraced or referred to, have considered the same, and endeavored to make such an investigation of the facts connected with the agency of the petitioner referred to in the report of the Public Treasurer as would enable your committee satisfactorily to report to the Convention; but the absence of certain vouchers and other testimony desired by the petitioner has induced the committee to defer the investigation to a future time.

The statements in connection with the agency of the petitioner embodied in the report of the Public Treasurer are based on and sustained by the returns and reports which had been submitted by the petitioner to the Public Treasurer, up to the time of the meeting of the Convention.

The petitioner however, insists that from sickness and other causes, he had up to that time been prevented from responding to the different applications made to him in this connection by the Public Treasurer, as fully as the nature of the various transactions, connected with this agency demanded, and the accompanying communication recently addressed by the petitioner to the Public Treasurer, was submitted to the committee as embodying a full exposition of the actings and doings of the petitioner in execution of the orders and duties incident to the said agency.

The committee believing it proper that the Convention should be advised as to progress made in the matters referred to the committee, have instructed the undersigned to make this report.

WM. A. WRIGHT, Chm'n.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The ordinance in relation to the late officers of the State, came up on its third reading, as the unfinished business.

The question was on the substitute of Mr. Moore of Wake, to the substitute of Mr. Conigland of Halifax. These substitutes are as follows:

By Mr. Conigland,

AN ORDINANCE IN RELATION TO THE LATE OFFICERS OF THE STATE.

Be it ordained by the Delegates of the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the Judges of the Supreme Court, and the Judges of the Superior Courts of law and equity in this State, who were holding and exercising office before and on the 26th day of April last, (except where vacancies have since occurred, or may occur by death or other cause, according to the laws of the State) are hereby declared to be still holding their respective offices, by the original tenor thereof, with power and authority to act therein in all respects as they had and held such power and authority, on and before the said day, with the like salaries which they then received. Provided however, That each of said Judges has been pardoned under the proclamation of his Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, of the 29th of May last, commonly called the "amnesty proclamation," or shall be specially pardoned thereunder before the 1st day of December next.

Be it further ordained, That the thirty third chapter of the Revised Code, organizing a Supreme Court, is hereby declared to be in full force and effect.

Be it further ordained, That all the offices existing in this State, on the said 26th day of April last, and not in this ordinance hereafter provided for, are hereby declared to be vacant, and the General Assembly, at its first session hereafter held, shall cause the same to be filled in the manner prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State, except when such offices shall have been filled under ordinance of this Convention. And all persons who may be thus appointed to fill said offices, shall enter upon the performance of the duties thereof whenever the Provisional Government of this State is at an end. Provided, however, That persons who held said offices on 26th day of April last, shall not be hereby released from any liability incurred by them for any act done under color of office, before the ratification of this ordinance.

Be it further ordained, That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this ordinance, are hereby repealed.

Mr. Moore's substitute,
AN ORDINANCE DECLARING VACANT ALL THE OFFICES OF THE STATE EXISTING ON THE 26TH DAY OF APRIL 1865.

Whereas, No person elected or appointed to any office under the State, can rightfully claim any vested interest therein, until he shall have taken the oath to support the constitution of the United States, as prescribed in that instrument, and also an oath of office; and whereas officers who did take such oath, and thereafter took an oath to support the constitution of the Confederate States did thereby incur the penalty of forfeiting their offices, and are incapable of resuming the duties thereof to which they were respectfully elected or appointed without again taking the like oath.

And whereas, It is in the power of the Convention to allow or deny to such persons the privileges of again qualifying themselves anew by taking such oaths, and the Convention deems it expedient after so great a popular convulsion as happened amongst the people of this State, that all such offices should be filled anew by persons hereafter chosen or appointed.

Be it therefore ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That no officer of this State, who may have taken an oath of office to support the Constitution of the Confederate States shall be of holding under the State any office or place of trust or profit, which he held when he took such oath to support the constitution of the Confederate States, until he may be appointed or re-elected to the same, and all the offices held by such persons are declared vacant.

Mr. Moore's ordinance was agreed to as a substitute for Mr. Conigland's.

Mr. Conigland addressed the Convention in opposition to the substitute.

Mr. McDonald of Moore, replied.

Mr. Phillips of Orange advocated the adoption of the original ordinance introduced by Mr. Thompson of Bertie.

Mr. Dick of Guilford supported the substitute of Mr. Moore.

The substitute of Mr. Moore was agreed to.

The question recurring upon the ordinance as amended, Mr. Caldwell of Burke demanded the ayes and nays, and it was sustained and the ordinance as amended was passed. Ayes 86, nays 12.

Those who voted in the affirmative are,

Messrs. Adams, Alexander, Allen, Baker, Barrow, Bann, Bell, Berry, Bingham, Boyden, Bradley, Brickell, Brown, Brooks, Bryan, Burgin, Caldwell of Guilford, Cowper, Dick, Dickey, Dockery, Ellis, Faircloth, Faulkner, Furches, Gahagan, Garland, Garrett, Godwin, Grissom, Harris of Guilford, Harris of Rutherford, Haynes, Henry, Hodge, Jackson, Jones of Davidson, Jones of Henderson, Jones of Rowan, Joyce, Kelly, Kennedy, King, Logan, Love of Chatham, Love of Jackson, Lyon, McGauley, McCleese, McKay of Harnett, McDonald of Chatham, Melver, Nat. McLean, McLaughlin, McKee, Moore of Wake, Nicholson, Norfleet, Odom, Patterson, Phillips, Polk, Russell, Rush, Saunders, Settle, Simmons, Sloan, Smith of Anson, Smith of Wilkes, Spencer of Montgomery, Starbuck, Stephenson, Stewart, Stubbs, Swan, Thompson, Wake, Ward, Wiley, Williams, Wilson, Winburne, Winston.—86.

Those who voted in the negative are, Messrs. Conigland, Eaton, Faison, Ferebee, Jarvis, Joyner, McKie, McKoy of Sampson, N. A. McLean, Mebane, Murphy, Wright.—12.

Mr. Settle, of Rockingham, moved to take up his ordinance to recognize the just debts of the State and to prohibit the payment of the debts contracted or incurred in aid of the rebellion, which was agreed to.

Mr. Grissom, of Granville, offered a substitute. (His substitute proposes to refer the subject of the war debt to the people. It will be published hereafter.)

Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, desired the telegram from the President of the United States be read, and placed upon the journal. It was read.

A discussion arose upon the telegram and the war debt (which is crowded out.)

Mr. Boyden, of Rowan, moved to lay the whole subject on the table and called the ayes and nays thereon, and was sustained, and the Convention refused to lay on the table. Yeas 28—Nays 81.

Mr. Grissom's substitute being still under discussion at 10 1/2 o'clock, P. M. Upon motion of Mr. Warren, of Beaufort, the Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

SIXTEENTH DAY.

OCTOBER 19TH, 1865.

The President called the Convention to order at 10 o'clock.

The ordinance introduced by Mr. Settel, in reference to the ratification of the war debt came up as the unfinished business.

The substitute of Mr. Grissom, of Granville, was under consideration. (This ordinance proposes to refer the subject of the war debt to the people at November election.)

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, was opposed to the substitute of the ordinance from Granville (Mr. Grissom) since the receipt of the dispatch from the President, but was in favor of the original ordinance. He did so as the friend of the President, believing that President Johnson was a friend of North Carolina and was prompted in what he did, for her welfare.

Mr. Joyce, of Stokes, advocated the non-assumption of the war debt, while he was opposed to repudiation, and desired to pay every cent of the debt contracted prior to May, 1861. He would vote against all amendments, and support the original ordinance.

Mr. Eaton had not changed his views upon the subject since the receipt of the telegraphic dispatch. He was still opposed to any action by the Convention at this session upon the subject. It was useless for him to say that he meant no disrespect to the very distinguished and patriotic President of the United States, whose liberal policy towards the South met his warmest approval, and he believed him to be actuated by feelings of interest for the whole country. He thought however, the President had received false information in regard to the action of this Convention, and certainly could not be acquainted with the spirit of harmony which prevailed in regard to all questions relating to our federal relations. He accused no one of giving this false information, for like his friend from Rowan (Mr. Boyd) he did not know who did it, and made no conjectures. President Johnson was the executive head of a great republic, extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and covering an area of territory more extensive than imperial Rome in the days of Augustus, with every imaginable conflicting interest. It was impossible that the President of so great a republic could be acquainted with all local matters of finance.

Mr. Jones of Rowan, said, delegates seemed alarmed in regard to the war debt. No member of this Convention had by word or implication said they were in favor of the assumption of the war debt. In an excited and contested canvass, he had promised the people of his County, that he would do all he could to keep this question out of the Convention, but it had been forced upon the consideration of this body by every means known to parliamentary rules. Those who have done so, best know the motive which has actuated them. He desired this question not to be acted upon with hasty legislation. If forced to vote, he would certainly vote against the assumption of the war debt. This Convention had given every evidence of its loyalty and harmonious spirit in regard to their desire to return to the Union. He preferred the appointment of a committee to report upon the amount and character of the new debt, so that we could tell what part was properly the war debt and what part was properly the debt of the State for other purposes, so that at the next session we could act with all necessary lights before us. No good would result from hasty action, and certainly no deriment could possibly happen from prudent delay. Our loyalty would not be measured by a matter of mere finance, and he could not believe that the door of the "old mansion" would be locked against us by our action on this subject. If any one loved the Federal Union more than he did, it was because the God of nature had created some individuals with more capacity than other, in this respect. He was as desirous as any man to re-establish our federal relations, but he did not believe that this would be subserved by hasty and imprudent legislation on this subject.

ELECTIONS.

The Elections for Governor, Representatives to Congress, and Members of Assembly, Sheriff and Clerks, will take place on Thursday, the 9th day of November, 1865.

National Union Andrew Johnson Ticket!

FOR GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, OF WAKE COUNTY.

We are authorized to announce Dr. J. G. RAMSAY a candidate for Congress in the 6th District, composed of the counties of Rowan, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Union, Gaston, Lincoln, Catawba, Iredell, Alexander, Wilkes, Yadkin, and Davie. dt126

THOMAS McNEELY

Announces himself as a candidate for the office, as Clerk of the Superior Court of Rowan, at the ensuing election.
Oct. 18, 1865. dt126

We are authorized to announce WILLIAM A. WALTON, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff, for Rowan County.

Governor Holden.

We cannot understand why there should be opposition to the election of Gov. Holden. Our former position—our political antecedents both before and during the continuance of the war, are too well defined and unmistakable to render a re statement necessary.

We opposed the election of Gov. Holden in 1864, because we did not regard him as true to the Confederacy. Change of circumstances cannot change principles but may and often should modify our practical action. A man also might have been very unobjectionable during the war—might, for the very reasons on which our support was based, be very objectionable now in our altered circumstances and so a man who was objectionable during the war by reason of his secret loyalty to the United States may very properly command our support now, when our future welfare so much depends upon the light in which our officers are viewed at Washington. They regard the election of a man, not regard ed by them as loyal, as evidence of a disloyal sentiment on the part of the electors.

It is idle to discuss the philosophy of the matter—we take it as we find it—a plain naked practical fact.

Gov. Holden has the confidence and respect of the President. He appointed him Provisional Governor because he well knew his loyalty—we have no reason to know, or believe that that confidence has been shaken or that respect diminished. Due respect has been paid to his recommendations and suggestions and the open reserve to the President's good graces has been and continues to be Gov. Holden's sign-manua. Both the President and the Governor rose from the people—an self-made men—the architects of their own characters and their own fortunes. Gov. Holden has acted with kindness, charity and forbearance towards those who so bitterly denounced him in the hey-day of the Confederacy.

We did not believe that he had a heart—but we now freely admit our error and frankly confess that he has a well of charity and benevolence that no draught can exhaust.

We have no reason to suppose that President Johnson's confidence has abated one jot, or tittle. What evidence have we that he reposes the like confidence in Mr. Jonathan Worth? Have we any? Have we not evidence that Mr. Worth's views and the President's are entirely opposed on at least a matter of very great importance—the non-assumption of the State war debt. Mr. Worth's opinions are well known, and the President's have been expressed to the Convention in terms unmistakable. What is the use of rapping Mr. Worth? Why should Gov. Holden be thrust aside or if set aside, why should it be for Mr. J. Worth? Who objects to Gov. Holden? Who objects to what Gov. Holden has done is doing to promote rehabilitation. It is a stab in the dark—and perpetrates further than the Governor. What good purpose can be subserved by electing Mr. Worth? It is not more acceptable—is he more able? Who is at the bottom of this worse than useless move? Surely not our former political associates—they are the very best of citizens and will not engage in or lend themselves, we trust, to any plots or schemes—founded on personal feelings upon any convictions except the public good. We hope the work of re-construction began so auspiciously—will not be stopped half-way by the election of a man whose position is not cordially with the Administration at this time.

THE HIGGON OF THE CAMPAIGN.

The Convention Unanimously Endorsed President Johnson and Gov. Holden.

THE HYDRA HEAD OF FANATICISM BRUISED TO DEATH.

Truth will Prevail; Let the People Read.

In the Convention the 18th. the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved by the Delegates of the people of N. Carolina, in Convention assembled, That the administration of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, has been eminently national and conservative, embracing every section of this Republic; and that he is entitled to the gratitude of the people of this State for the manifestation of his purpose to secure to them as early a day as is practicable, the restoration of their constitutional rights in the Union; and that W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor, deserves our thanks for his zealous and faithful labors to the same end.

Resolved, That copies of the above resolution be transmitted by the President of this Convention to President Johnson and Gov. Holden. The above is a deserved compliment to a worthy President and the Governor. When now are the charges rung in the factious organ in this City? The resolutions were passed unanimously—not a voice in the negative, yet a few factious evil doers have brought out opposition to the Governor whom they thank for his labors. Let the people put their feet upon these agitators!

THE CONVENTION.—The Convention was engaged during the morning session Thursday in consideration of the ordinance known as the ordinance in regard to the debts of the State, and the original ordinance passed the second reading all amendments having been rejected. On the third reading an amendment submitting that part of the ordinance which relates to the war debt to the people, was offered by Mr. Grisom of Granville, and was under discussion when the Convention took a recess until 7 1/2 o'clock p. m.

The Convention, at the evening session Thursday passed an Ordinance in regard to the State debt. It requires the Legislature to make provision for the payment of the interest on what is known as the old or ante war debt, and for bids the payment of debts contracted in aid of the rebellion.

An Ordinance was passed giving the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions the same jurisdiction in criminal cases given before the war as laid down in the Revised Code.

A Resolution of thanks to the President was unanimously adopted, and was responded to in a most happy manner by that officer. We shall endeavor to procure the remarks of the President on adjourning the Convention for publication in a future number.

We are unable to give the proceedings of the morning and afternoon sessions of yesterday, but will publish them hereafter.

The Convention adjourned, to meet on the 1st of May next.—Real Standard.

A FIX FOR A YOUNG GENTLEMAN.—A very nice young gentleman, whose name we do not deem necessary to ventilate, recently invested a small sum in chickens, which he undertook to take home on the Dauphin street cars. After proceeding a short distance the attention of all the passengers, a large proportion of whom were ladies, was called to him by one of his purchases raising a loud and continued cackle. In vain he tried to quiet the bird; the ladies "tittered" and pulled down their veils; the gentlemen on board "haw hawed," and our young friend, in his ignorance of "the situation," blushed. Growing somewhat restless at being the cynosure of all eyes, he cast a look into his lap, and behold—there was an egg. He immediately quit the car and pursued his way homeward on foot. Imagine his "pheelinks."—Mobile Tribune.

Most of men who complain, that they have nothing to do, are just about equal to the task.

He that would have no trouble in this world must not be born in it.

"Good blood will always show itself," as the old lady said, when she was struck by the redness of her nose.

Excited Orator.—"We have taken Atlanta, we have taken Savannah, Columbia, and Charleston, and now at last we have taken Petersburg and occupied Richmond, and what remains for us to take?" An Irishman in the crowd shouts: "Let's take a drink!" The crowd disperses in various directions.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE 'BANNER']
What I See, Hear and Think as I go Northward.
BALTIMORE, Oct. 17th, 1865.

FRIEND STEWART:

I am in Baltimore once again, but it is not the same Baltimore as of yore. Strangers have taken the place of friends; friends are in their graves, or scattered and gone, all traces of them lost in the surges of time that hurry us on so relentlessly to Eternity. Some few faces come to us again, some few honest hands are extended to us in friendship as in the olden time, but the change made by war in our own sad country, are not more manifest to me than the changes that have occurred here since 1861. There are some old places that look familiar. The 'Sun's' Iron Building, the Monuments, the Court House, and the Hotels; but many of the loftiest forms and kindest friends sleep their last sleep. There is Walsh, Pitts, LeGrand, missing from the temple that they graced; and on Sunday I had the melancholy pleasure of paying the last token of respect to an old and honored friend, Dr. F. E. B. Hintze. I truly believe that death was in the gust of pestilence, and wearing the mask of prosperity, stricken down as many of the young men of Baltimore since 1861 as she did, out of my comrades with the terrible bloody spear of war.

I visited a number of the houses here and find that the trade from the South is reviving business. A few months ago and warehouses and stores were to be had in plenty, now they are not to be had at any reasonable price. Dwellings have become equally as scarce, and, on every hand, we see demonstrations of the fact, that the city of Monuments will lead the Southern trade over her Northern competitors. The first steamer direct from here to Liverpool, has already left this port, and with direct importations; the merchant's of the South will be able to purchase goods as cheap here as in New York, Philadelphia, or Boston. Among the leading firms in the Southern trade, are Herbert & Hairston, Tobacco, Cotton and Commission Merchants, No. 158, West Pratt St. Mr. Hairston and Col. Herbert are too well known South for me to attempt here to say anything about them. Thos. J. Flack & Sons, is a great liquor house, and he has with him an old Salisburian, Capt. Jas. M. Goodman. Hopkins & Co., are of the first Dry Good houses in the country. Tucker & Smith, extensive in the Shoe, Boot, and Cap business. T. G. Austin & Co., who has on hand the most extensive assortment of Soaps that I ever seen. Leonard Passano, leader in the Notion business, and a score of other places, that I visited, all exhibited unexampled prosperity, and I found at each and every one of these places some Southern merchant buying goods; among them Mr. Merony and Mr. White of Salisbury. Nothing of special interest here at present. I might give you a learned disquisition on politics but we are tired of that.

Yours, THE PRINCE.

North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company.

THE following statement of the condition of the N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Company will show that after all the vicissitudes of the war, the Company is still strong, and merits the continuance of the patronage heretofore so generously bestowed.

Assets.
Premium Notes liable to assessment.	$129,498
Bonds of solvent individuals	23,004
	$152,502
Liabilities.
Losses allowed up to January 1, 1865	$35,249
Excess of assets over liabilities	$116,953
To meet the above liabilities, the Directors have ordered the collection of the individual bonds, and an assessment of 20 per cent. on the premium notes, which should yield
Bonds	$23,004
Assessments	25,839
	$48,843
Losses	35,249
	$3,694

An excess of $3,694
Sufficient to cover all deficiencies.
If the Company shall be patronized by the public as before the war, there will be the annual profits in cash and premium notes which may be added to the assets now in hand, for the payment of liabilities.

Nearly all the above liabilities would have been extinguished but for the refusal of claimants to receive the currency in circulation at the time of the losses. They cannot reasonably complain of some delay. It will be remembered that the premium notes are the accumulations of notes given by insurers for one half their annual premiums, which the Company had the right to require to be paid in cash. On the face of the note the insurer promises to pay whenever requested by the Directors, and all payments on assessments will be so much added to the sum insured, by diminishing to that amount the premium note to be deducted in case of loss. Many insurers pay the whole premium in cash as a matter of choice. It is believed that the losses may be paid by the first instalment of ten per cent added to the contemplated profits; but it is the firm intention of the directors to meet all their liabilities as promptly as the condition of the country will admit, even if to do so, it may be necessary to order the collection of all the premium notes.

A SOLITARY HORSEMAN.—The Stenion Windies-
tor, of last Friday, has the following.

One day last week, friend of ours, residing in our neighboring town of Greenville, was asked by an elderly gentleman on horseback, to be so kind as to direct him to the hotel of the town, which our amiable friend did in a kind terms as the request had been made, and after the departure of the gentleman turned to pursue his business little thinking that the occurrence would again be brought to his mind. An old negro man, coming down the street, passed the solitary horseman, and politely lifted his hat to him, and upon approaching our friend, asked him if he knew that gentleman. Upon receiving a negative reply, said, "why that's our great old General. That's Mass Robert E. Lee." A thousand mortars had suddenly let loose upon the town, a greater excitement could scarcely have been created. The news spread like wild fire, crowds from town and country rushed in to get a sight of the great and good man, whom not only the Southern people, but those throuout the world, who appreciate true greatness love to admire.

He was on his way to assume the duties of President of Washington College, to which position, without solicitation, he had been lately elected, and in his unostentatious way, would have passed by unknown but for being recognized by the old negro, who had followed him in his campaigns. As it was, his advent into Greenville was an era in her history, and long will she remember the day.

"Jim, does your mother whip you?" "No—but she does a precious sight worse." "What is that?"
"She washes me all over every morning."

AGENTS WANTED

FOR OUR

THE

Standard HISTORY of the War.

Containing a full, authentic and reliable account of the "great conflict," from its commencement to its close. Complete in one very large volume, of over 1,000 pages; containing reading matter equal to three large royal octavo volumes, splendidly illustrated with over 125 fine portraits of Generals and battle scenes.

This is just the book the people want. It presents a rare chance for Agents, Teachers, energetic young men, and especially returning and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition.
This work has no rival as a candid, lucid, complete, authentic and reliable history of the war. Send for circulars and see our terms. Address JONES BRO-THERS & CO., 148 West Fourth street, Cincinnati, Ohio. d3w120-2pdy9-

Spotswood Hotel.

RICHMOND, Va., August, 1865.

IT having been reported that the Spotswood Hotel had been confiscated and closed, the proprietors deem it proper to assure the Public that such is not the case. The House is open for the accommodation of visitors, as it has been from its opening day in September, 1860.

The House has been renovated, renovated, refurnished, and put in perfect order throughout, and the traveling public may rest assured of finding as comfortable accommodations with us as can be found in any first class Hotel, North or South.

Our friends, patrons, and the travelling public generally, visiting Richmond, are cordially invited to make their home with us, and no pains will be spared to make them comfortable, as we are pledged to sustain the well known reputation of the House.

Our former patrons will find the old employees of the House still in our service, were they will be pleased to welcome them as formerly.

Great Southern Mail Route.

Carrying United States Mail and Adams' Express through entirely by rail to Washington City, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Lynchburg via the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, the Virginia Central Railroad, 411 miles continuous rail.

TWICE DAILY.

The Orange and Alexandria Railroad having been put in complete repair, are now running two trains daily between Washington City and Lynchburg, connecting with the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Washington, the Virginia and Tennessee railroad at Lynchburg, and at Gordonsville with the Virginia Central railroad for Staunton and Richmond, which connects with the Richmond and Petersburg, and Richmond and Danville railroads, and the steamer for Norfolk and Portsmouth. Passengers taking this line pass in full view of the various battle fields along the line of the Virginia Central Railroad, between Richmond and Gordonsville, and the famous fields of Manassas, Brimstone and Cedar Mountain, on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and may rely upon making close and regular connections with the lines indicated. Elegant cars run upon this line, and every accommodation furnished to make the passengers comfortable.

Through passengers arriving in Richmond by the Virginia Central, Richmond and Danville, and Richmond and Petersburg railroads, will find Garkers & Co's omnibuses to transport them between depots. Passengers have ample time to dine and sleep at Gordonsville.
